the real time challenges and opportunities of the infrastructure industry in India. As part of the collaboration, Srei has sponsored a student-run professional club at ISB known as the Srei Infrastructure Club. Srei guides and mentors several activities of the club while helping students connect with a broader group of infrastructure experts across the country.

Students are exposed to the details of Srei's ongoing projects in sectors like road, telecom, aviation, rural infrastructure and power, to gain hands on exposure to real problem solving. Club members can access Srei's strategic brainstorming sessions. Students learn through experience and offer their fresh perspectives on various government policies and public private partnership models.

Hemant Kanoria, CMD, Srei Infrastructure Finance Ltd, said: "A spectrum of ideas made Srei join hands with the Indian School of Business. For starters, we wanted access to the country's most talented individuals that were about to enter the workforce. We work alongside these students through their academic year at ISB, giving them
